

JOURNAL OF PUNJAB STUDIES

Volume 22

Number 2

Fall 2015

Invited Editors: Jugdep Singh Chima & Nirvikar Singh

Articles	Contents
Jugdep S. Chima & Nirvikar Singh	Editorial Introduction	203
Murray J. Leaf	Punjab: The Right to Organize and the Power to Develop	209
Prakash Singh	Economics of Civil Conflict: Evidence from the Punjab Insurgency	231
Lakhwinder Singh	Towards an Alternative Strategy for Economic Development in Punjab	249
Sumita Kale & Laveesh Bhandari	Small States and Large States: Lessons for Punjab	271
Pritam Singh	The Lesser Child: A Study of the Interlinkages between the Child Sex Ratios and Discrimination Against the Girl Child in Punjab	287
Diditi Mitra	The Boundaries between “Home” and “Diaspora”: American Sikhs and the Construction of Place	319
Shruti Devgan	The Digital Story of 1984: Diasporic Sikhs and the Mediated Work of Memory and Emotion	343
Book Reviews	Contents	379
Reviews	Reviews	381